Camps Stanislaus And St. Joseph End Very Successful Sessions

179 Boys and 78 Girls From Several States in Attendance—Awards Made On Last Day of Session.

We had the honor of having had two successful summer camps held in Bay St. Louis. The one for boys at Camp Stanislaus, under the direction of Bro. Peter, President of St. Stanislaus, and the other for girls at St. Joseph's Academy under the direction of Mother St. John, Superior of St. Joseph's Academy.

The heads of both of these institutions were assisted by a very able corps of assistants.

Both camps ended their sessions last Sunday.

Camp Stanislaus had 179 boys registered at this year's camp and was a record-breaker in every way. At the final session trophies, medals, and ribbons were awarded.

In the dining room was a reproduction of an ante-bellum home on the veranda of which was grouped dolls representing the old time servants. The favors were small dolls dressed as old time servants of that day and the nut cups which were filled with pecans were made of the same material as the dresses. Pralines were also served typical of that period.

Right At Home

Fred Fayard, Jr., who is a radio operator with the bombardment group somewhere in the Pacific zone, sent this picture to his father and mother.

Undoubtedly, the surroundings must have made Fred think of home, for he is seated on a sailboat at a beach. Fred is 3rd from the left, the first two from the left being British soldiers, and the 4th an American soldier.

McAdams, Jackson, Miss. All camp activities were offered at the camp with special attention paid to boating and fishing. The attendance at these camps and the splendid manner in which they are carried on speaks well for the institutions conducting them and means much to Bay St. Louis.

We have seen the growth of these two camps from just a few boys and girls to their present size. May they continue to grow and may St. Stanislaus and St. Joseph Academy, both of which mean so much to Bay St. Louis, have continued success in these undertakings.

Let's wake up! Do you realize Bay St. Louis has, as yet, no trained workers for organized mass feeding in case disaster should strike our city? So far there have been two classes in Nutrition, making a nucleus for a class in canteen which is for the purpose of meeting this need. Those women who have finished the necessary Nutrition classes met yesterday morning at the home of Mrs. Scott Morrill to organize a canteen class. Mrs. Ernest Irwin and Miss Eleanor Smith will be the instructors. There will be training in actual group feeding with practical application. Only those having completed the Nutrition classes are eligible. They are all too few. But be sure to avail yourself of the opportunity to join the next Nutrition class so you also may join the next canteen group. Your services are greatly needed. It is time we were all out for National defense. Don't wait for tomorrow!

Anyone having a centrally located room or building they would care to loan to the Red Cross for the duration to use as a Canteen please contact Mrs. Alice Buckley, 315.

Members of the Junior Life Saving group who have completed the fifteen hour course under the direction of Miss Helen Biehl are as follows:

Patsy Kehoe, Katherine Kehoe, Jeanne Arceneaux, Thelma Thomas and Aubrey Lee Biehl. Classes were held at the St. Joseph convent pier.

Certificates for those finishing the classes in Nutrition and Home Nursing have been received from National Headquarters.

The Junior Red Cross Committee held a meeting in the Courthouse Tuesday morning to discuss fall plans for Red Cross work in the schools of the county, of which there are 21 for white children and ten for colored. Mrs. Ernest Irwin was appointed teacher sponsor for the Bay High School; Miss Carmelite Spotorno for the grade schools and Miss Kathleen Renshaw for St. Joseph Academy. The sponsors for the other schools in the county will be appointed later.

Mrs. Stella Catching has returned from Jackson most enthusiastic over the course in Surgical Dressings—given there by National Red Cross, for three days of last week.

Work on surgical dressings will begin here after August first. The Masons have very kindly loaned the use of the large room on the second floor of the Masonic Temple on Main street for this purpose. The army will send all materials with which to make the dressings, and the finished articles will be returned direct to the army. The ever increasing demand for more dressings by the armed forces has motivated the establishment of more surgical dressing centers.

The following have been appointed as heads for the various branches of the work:

Chairman—Mrs. Stella Catching
Co-Chairman—Mrs. Walter Gex, Jr.

Cutting Chairman—Mrs. Horace Kergosien; Co-Chairman, Mrs. Roger Boh.

Packing Chairman—Mrs. Lucien Gex; Co-Chairman, Mrs. Milton Phillips.

Captain of the day—Mrs. Leo Ford, Mrs. W. D. Bourgeois. Others to be appointed later.

The following women have completed the course in Motor Mechanics sponsored by the Red Cross Motor Corps, and given by Mr. Ed Arceneaux:

Mrs. Horace Kergosien, Mrs. Roger Boh, Mrs. M. Gilmore, Mrs. Roland Weston, Mrs. Ed Arceneaux, Miss Jane Juden, Miss Elsa Mauffray.

Can you sew? Can you knit? The Red Cross Production Room on Main Street can use you.

Promoted

News has reached us that Clay J. Calhoun, former Bay St. Louis boy, and brother of Mrs. L. M. Gex, has been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant in the United States Navy. He is at the present time serving at the Naval Air Base at Lakehurst, New Jersey.

The many friends of Lt. Calhoun are very happy to have received the news of his promotion and we extend to him our congratulations, with the sincere hope that he may advance higher in the ranks in the service of his country.

SUPERVISORS COMPLETE EQUALIZATION

Assessment Rolls on File in Clerk's Office—Protest To Be Heard Starting 1st Monday of August

The Board of Supervisors of Hancock County have completed the equalization of the Personal Assessment rolls for the year 1942, and of the real assessment roll for the years 1942-1943. The real assessment in the County is made for a two year period. All protest to the assessments as equalized by the Board must be filed in writing on or before the 1st Monday of August.

The board will hear protests starting on the 1st Monday of August and continue in session during the month of August from day to day until such time as all protests have been heard.

The Board is desirous of having the taxpayers of the County check their assessments. In the event a piece of property is overvalued and a petition is later filed for a reduction, it entails quite a bit of additional work, and changes of records and must be approved by the State Tax Commission. So that if all who are interested would take time out at this time to ascertain if their assessment is satisfactory in the end it would prove helpful to both the Board and the property owners, and if an overvaluation has been made then in that event the Board can hear the protest and if they find that the property owner is correct it is an easy matter to make the adjustment.

LOCAL FINANCE COMPANY SHOWS HEALTHY CONDITION

Elsewhere in this paper is published the statement of the Peoples Federal Savings and Loan Association of Bay St. Louis. According to a recent report of the United States Examiner of the Federal Savings and Loan Associations, this Association was reported to be in an excellent financial condition.

We are informed that they have given notice to share holders, living in the East and West, that their shares would be called in as of June 30th. This total amount approximated some $15,000.00. This has been done, and these share holders have been paid the face value of their stock, and their shares have been replaced by citizens of Bay St. Louis and Hancock County, who are investing in their home institution.

The calling of this stock was done for the purpose of making this, practically an entirely home owned institution, and for the purpose of giving to the people of Bay St. Louis and Hancock County an opportunity to invest in the Association.

The officers and directors of this Association are as follows: Jos. O. Mauffray, President; John J. McDonald, Vice President; G. V. W. Lyman, Secretary-Treasurer; and Jos. O. Mauffray, John J. McDonald, Chas. Traub, Sr., W. W. Stockstill and L. B. Capdepone, Directors.

SELLERS BOY AT KEESLER FIELD

Pvt. Clarence Theodore Smith of the Sellers Community in Hancock County, was enrolled as a student this week in the country's greatest Army Air Forces Technical School at Keesler Field, and has started an intensive 19-week course to qualify as an airplane mechanic.

Private Smith, who came here from Camp Shelby, Miss., reception center, already has completed his basic training which includes marching, target practice, gas mask and bayonet drills, and orientation lectures. At the completion of the Air Mechanics course here, he will be prepared for assignment to active line duty with some fighting unit of the Army Air Forces.

The course begins with instruction in aircraft maintenance fundamentals, and then advances to airplane structures, hydraulic systems, propellers, instruments, engines, fuel and electrical systems and engine operation. Before completing the course, the student is given thorough training in the inspection of single and multi-engine planes.

A person who seeks a post in plants where work on secret or confidential contracts is being done, will no longer be required to provide a birth certificate. Instead, a simple declaration of citizenship will be sufficient.

Military Police Assist Local Officers Enforce Dim-Out Regulations

Violators To Be Arrested And Prosecuted—Not A Trial Or Practice—Will Continue For Duration of Emergency

On Wednesday night Military Police, under the direction of Major F. G. Ash of Camp Shelby were on duty in Hancock County, for the purpose of helping enforce the dim out regulations as adopted by the Town of Waveland, the City of Bay St. Louis, and the County authorities.

The Military authorities are co-operating with the civilian authorities. A contingent of military police working with the Chief of Police of Bay St. Louis, the Marshal of Waveland and the Sheriff of the County.

The military police will be on duty for several days—after that time enforcement will be by the Civilian authorities, and in the event this should prove unsatisfactory other steps will be taken. It is of absolute necessity that certain regulations, the dim out ordinances be enforced, particularly the restriction on motor vehicles and exterior lighting.

We feel certain that the people of our county will cooperate, and that it will not be necessary for any arrests to be made.

We do not believe that anyone would wilfully violate these ordinances knowing full well that the reflection of their lights may be the proximate cause of the death of many a sailor who is risking his life to see that necessary equipment and supplies reach our Boys who are fighting for us.

We can make some sacrifice. If necessary we should quit driving after dark, except in case of absolute necessity. We are certain this would help the cause and help the officials who are charged with the enforcement of these regulations.

CHECK DRIVER'S LICENSE

Expiration Dates on Auto Licenses From June 1st On—Important That They be Renewed

It is very important that all drivers of automobiles check their driver's license. The expiration date is stamped on the face of the license. Many should have been renewed in June.

On September 1st a new renewal period starts, and Miss Lena Brock, Director of the Drivers' License Division of the State Motor Vehicle Commission, says that it appears that a great many people fail to realize the importance of keeping their driver's license current. May we suggest that you check your license and see if it is time for renewal. If so, call at the Sheriff's Office and have the same taken care of. Failure to do this may cause you embarrassment, if a State Patrolman, or one of the local officers has reason to check them for you.

If your license has expired, you are in the same position as a driver without any, and, of course, if you should be checked by an officer prior to the renewal of your license, after same has expired, it will be necessary that a charge be made against you, and, of course, this would entail the paying of a fine.

Save yourself this trouble, and call at the Sheriff's Office and have your license renewed.

"EVEN THOUGH YOU HAVE RECEIVED YOUR ORDERS TO REPORT FOR INDUCTION UNDER SELECTIVE SERVICE, YOU MAY STILL VOLUNTEER FOR THE NAVY RIGHT UP TO THE TIME OF YOUR INDUCTION. AFTER THAT YOU CAN NO LONGER CHOOSE YOUR SERVICE. REMEMBER, IF YOU WANT TO GET IN THE NAVY, YOU'VE GOT TO VOLUNTEER BEFORE YOU ARE INDUCTED. DON'T WAIT TILL IT'S TOO LATE."

NOT SPORTSMANSHIP

CHANCELLOR Ben Stevens is running for the Congress seat held by Bill Colmer, of the sixth district, but he isn't running away from his pay check.

While Bill is sticking to his job in Washington Ben is gallivanting about the sixth district making speeches and Chancellor R. W. Cutrer, of Magnolia, is presiding over court terms that Chancellor Stevens ought to be holding.

Maybe that's all right, but from this distance it doesn't look like fair play—if there is such a thing in politics as fair play.

Incidentally, Chancellor Ben Stevens is criticizing Congressman Bill Colmer about holding an X-card conferring the privilege of unlimited gasoline supply, which does not happen to be a fact. Record in Washington shows that Congressman Colmer did not apply for an X-card.

Of course Chancellor Stevens has an unlimited supply of gasoline and likewise rubber tires, permitting him to run around making speeches, attend picnics, shake hands with voters, kiss babies, make promises, and other things candidates do when running for office.

Congressman Colmer can't do these things. He conceives it his duty to stick to the duties he is paid to perform, regardless of his political fortunes. He has a consistent record for doing that ever since he was sent to Congress.

However, Bill need not do any serious worrying. He will be an easy winner in the August Primary. The record he has made fully justifies his re-election.—Jackson, Daily News—Friday, July 10, 1942.

A TRULY DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTION—CONGRESS

A LOT of people have been cussing Congress these days. But if they have the idea that a dictatorship is better they should take a good look at the rubber situation. For if it had not been for the consistent fighting and hammering by a watchful Congress and a free press—the instruments of our democratic processes—it is doubtful that the rubber situation would be on the road to real improvement today.

Behind the scenes, certain hard-hitting senators—Gilette of Iowa, Thomas of Oklahoma, Truman of Missouri, Norris of Nebraska, Kilgore of West Virginia, Brewster of Maine, Wheeler of Montana, and many others have done a great service to the nation.

As a result of their tireless bludgeoning, both backstage and in the full glare of the footlights, a real drive to make synthetic rubber and make it fast, is now under way—seven precious months after Pearl Harbor.

Most of the congressmen couldn't even spell the word "butadiene." But they have definitely proved that the experts were wrong.

To illustrate the doubtful blessings of supreme authority, no one in the government had more dictatorial power regarding rubber than Jesse Jones. Congress granted him almost limitless funds and the president gave him limitless power to produce rubber. He could hire the best experts in the world, consult the best scientists, sign contracts with anyone.

BUSINESS BEFORE WAR

But for some reason the experts he chose put all the rubber eggs in one basket—the manufacture of rubber from petroleum, and by a lengthy process. At one hearing Senator Wheeler asked Jesse Jones:

"Have you investigated to see whether or not it (the alcohol process) is good?"

"To which Jones' rubber brain-truster, Stanley Crossland, replied:

"It has been investigated, but it has not gone beyond the development stage by which we can tell whether or not it is operable on a commercial scale."

But the Senate agriculture subcommittee, probing the matter, reported:

"The only known and commercially tested processes for the production of synthetic rubber developed principally in continental Europe by Germans, Poles and Russians, were from alcohol produced from grain and potatoes."

The Senate committee went further, saying: "There is no explanation by any responsible official of why this country, in setting up a program for the production of synthetic rubber, gave consideration only to untried laboratory experiments from petroleum which will require twice the time and many times the critical material needed to produce the same synthetic rubber from alcohol."

Finally, the committee used one of the most devastating statements ever to appear in a congressional report when it laid the blame directly on oilmen who wanted to prevent the competition of Mid-West grain alcohol after the war.

GIVE THE ACTUAL FACTS

THE people of this section of the country were dumbfounded when news reached us that orders had been received from the Maritime Commission to stop work on the ship building plant of the Higgins Corporation at New Orleans.

The reason given for the closing down of the work on this plant, was the lack of steel. As to whether this is the real reason, we are not in a position to say. However, if this statement is true, we believe that whoever issued it, made a mistake. We do not believe that any statement could have been issued that would have done more to upset the morale of the people of this country, than the statement that we lacked a sufficient amount of steel to construct 200 Liberty Ships in addition to the ships that are under contract in other sections of the country.

Supplementing the statement as to the lack of steel, a statement was issued, stating that new plants for the manufacture of steel could not be completed within a period of two years. If the steel shortage is as acute as we are led to believe by this statement, and if we are not able to complete the building of plants for the manufacture of steel within two years, then we are in a hell of a fix.

With the strides that have been made in construction work in this country, we cannot be made to believe that it would take two years to complete these plants. It strikes us that, if this statement is absurd. We believe that, if the statement as to the shortage of steel is true, then it would be far better to use a part of the material on hand to build plants at this time to increase the output, than to attempt to carry on under present conditions, said to exist, knowing that eventually, if these statements are true, that we will face a real steel shortage.

We do not believe that officials of the War Production Board could hope that the American public would swallow this statement without making some effort to ascertain its correctness. Mr. Higgins expresses the opinion that it is probably not a shortage of steel, but the action of certain ship builders in the East, who are attempting to prevent the building of ships on such a large scale in the South. This is a very serious charge, and in order to ascertain the true facts, Congress should get to the bottom of it.

With the statements issued by the Maritime Commission, the War Production Board and by Mr. Higgins, we are still wondering if the right chord has been struck. Could it be possible that someone made a mistake in the selection of the site, and in order to cover up the mistake of some of the higher ups, these other statements were issued. The truth about this whole affair should be brought out, and the minds of the people satisfied. If there is an actual shortage of steel, then those in authority should at once make provisions to set up the necessary machinery for the production of an amount sufficient to take care of our needs, and if some of the higherups made a mistake the people should know. Nothing should be held back at this time. The chips should be let fall where they may.

We are certain that our enemies rejoiced when the news reached them of the statements as published by the Maritime Commission and the War Production Board.

WASTE OF TIME AND MATERIAL

CHARGES have been made in the Senatorial Campaign as to the use of the franking privileges, and the printing of speeches, made by the different candidates for the United States Senate, by the Government printing office in Washington. This point has been argued by the candidates at length.

We are of the opinion that these men, running for the office of United States Senator, should realize how few of the pamphlets that are mailed out under their frank, are read. Many are not even opened, and many never reach the person to whom they are addressed. Lists are used, carrying the names of many people who are dead, or who have moved from the particular locality where they are addressed.

Authorities are asking that all scrap paper be preserved, and that the use of paper be conserved as much as possible, and yet we find men holding high office, or who have held high office, covering the State of Mississippi with reading matter, mostly printed at Government expense, and mailed at Government expense, extolling the acts and deeds of the candidates.

In addition to the waste of paper, it is a burden on the employees of the Postal Department to have to handle bag after bag of this mail, carrying nothing but political propaganda; and we are certain that many dollars could be saved the Post Office Department, if a rule was set up, prohibiting the use of the mail under the franking privilege to Members of Congress and of the United States Senate, for any purpose other than the actual business of their office.

In our opinion, it is not necessary for candidates for the Senate, or Congress, to attempt to have the people read some speech that they have made about different subjects that are before their respective Houses. We do not believe that a speech made in our Congress by any of these candidates, would get them one single vote. They should know enough about politics to know that the people of Mississippi vote their likes and dislikes of individuals, and base their votes upon what they think the candidate has accomplished, instead of the speeches made by them. Many of these speeches are never delivered, but are merely extended in the Congressional Record.

It is high time that some action be taken in this matter, and that an end be put to a whole lot of this "tommy rot", which does nothing but waste material that we are told to save and conserve, and places a lot of added work and burden upon the postal employees of the small post offices of Mississippi.

"Such meticulous care to avoid the possibility of postwar competition," the Senate rebuked, "may bespeak a high degree of business shrewdness, but it likewise portrays a serious failure to appreciate the necessity of keeping America on wheels and winning the war."

So, if you don't have to give up your tires after all, you can thank that sometimes-berated, sometimes-bumling, but get-there-in-the-end, truly democratic institution—Congress.—The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round—By Drew Pearson—Tuesday, July 21st, 1942.

It is often overlooked that our Declaration of Independence and Constitution did much more than establish America's freedom.

Along with our new liberty went responsibility; with our personal and political privileges we also assumed sacred obligations.

There is nothing fixed about freedom—it must be purchased over and over. We are now engaged in a total war to defend our independence, as we face our foes on land and in the sea and air.

Economy and sacrifice are both essential to victory. To keep a substantial cash balance in the bank and invest your surplus in war savings stamps and government bonds is to be patriotic.

Letters Of Appreciation

From 5th Technician Stephen Bourgeois, Medical Detachment, Station Hospital, Camp Claiborne, Louisiana:

"Dear Mr. Favre: I have been receiving The Echo for the last three months, and I want to express my appreciation for every copy of the paper, which has never failed to arrive each week. Like the other boys in service, to me it is a source of interesting news about home, and also, it is almost the only way we have of learning of our many friends and buddies in service."

"I think you would like to know that I read the paper from end to end, advertisements and all. Thank you again. I am sure I will always remember the Echo, and your thoughtful kindness in sending it."

Yours very truly,
Stephen Bourgeois."

From Pvt. 1[C] Eddie J. Arceneaux, Jr., Hq. Co., 30th Infantry, Fort Ord, California:

Nation To Hear Army Air Mechanics on Vox Pop From Keesler Field

Radio's famous pioneer interview program, Vox Pop—The Voice of the People, is coming to Biloxi, Miss., to originate one of its series of war broadcasts from the Army Air Forces Technical School at Keesler Field on Monday, July 27, from 7 to 7:30 PM, CWT, over the nation-wide network of the Columbia Broadcasting System, Canadian stations, and by shortwave around the world to U. S. troops on global battle fronts.

Parks Johnson, 10-year Vox Pop veteran, who was born in Alabama, and resided in Georgia, and his new radio partner, Warren Hull, the movie star widely-known for his "Green Hornet" screen role, will entertain the soldier technical trainees, and through their broadcast interviews with six of the men, acquaint millions of listeners with the gigantic job Keesler Field is doing in turning out expert aviation mechanics in incredibly brief training periods.

This will be Vox Pop's first broadcast in Mississippi. First radio show to adapt and contribute its facilities to national defense and the war effort, the program has been heard from Army and Navy bases and armament plants in virtually every other state in the Union.

The six air mechanics, who will be chosen to go on the air with Johnson and Hull, will be representative of various sections of the country and diverse peacetime professions.

Each one interviewed will be given useful and amusing articles of merchandise for his efforts in answering questions at the microphone. Vox Pop will purchase these gifts

Itta Bena Girl Is State Winner In National Poster Contest

MISS EDITH ALEXANDER

Here is Miss Edith Alexander of Itta Bena who has just been named state champion for Mississippi in a national poster contest in which 12,820 high school students of 41 states competed. The theme of this contest was "Meat and Victory," according to the National Live Stock and Meat Board, contest sponsor. Miss Alexander's poster won high honor on the basis of originality, grasp of the subject and method of presentation, in the opinion of the judging committee.

In a statement accompanying her poster, Miss Alexander called attention to the importance of meat in the diet of the soldiers and sailors as well as for people in all walks of life. One reason for this, she states, is the fact that meat is a good source of protein, so necessary for growth and repair of the body tissues, as well as of vitamins, minerals and energy. "Never," says Miss Alexander, "has it been so important that we keep fit with a diet which includes meat."

The National Live Stock and Meat Board represents all branches of

Induction Of Men Without Regard To Recent Outlined Categories

Induction of men without regard to the categories recently outlined by the Selective Service System in cases where variance is necessary to fill quotas has been authorized by Lieut. Col. Lawrence W. Long, State Director.

"Local Boards have been authorized to vary from the general order of selection of registrants by Categories if and when it is necessary to do so to fill the demands made upon them for selectees," he said. "These demands are to be met now by using registrants who have been classified as available under the previous policy and regulations of the Selective Service System."

Lieut. Col. Long explained that as rapidly as possible the new demands for selectees will be filled with registrants classified or reclassified under the new policy and regulations pertaining to the dependency relationship of the registrants, according to recent congressional action.

"In considering the classification," Lieut. Col. Long pointed out, "we urge that all Local Boards consider the Occupational as well as the dependency status as has been set forth heretofore with particular reference to the four categories."

The State Director said that some registrants are moving voluntarily in the support of the war effort. He said this should be considered by Local Boards in classification of registrants.

MY FAVORITE BLONDE AT A. & G. THEATRE SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Featuring a Picture of Action and Comedy

From a story by Melvyn and Norman Panama and screen play by Don Hartman and Frank Butler that is as accelerated as the latest dive bomber, with a cast star-studded with Bob Hope and Madeline Carroll, and with a delicious streak of comedy running through the entire length of the picture.

Madeline Carroll is cast in the role of a British agent, whose assignment is to deliver a "Scorpion" brooch, containing a secret code covering the flight to 155 bombers from Los Angeles to England, to an agent in Chicago, who, in turn, is to take it on to Los Angeles. In one of her attempts to escape from the surveillance eyes and knife-throwing hands of Nazi enemy agents, she meets Bob Hope, a vaudeville actor, who is unwittingly and unwillingly dragged into the task of helping her deliver the "Scorpion." The finale of the picture finds the "Scorpion" in the hands of the proper authorities, but not before Madeline and Bob have undergone all sorts of mad adventures, including a framed murder and escapes from enemy agents and the police.

They go to a truck drivers' picnic, where they sing a loud and lusty rendition of "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," they steal watermelons, Bob had to deliver a lecture, presumably as a doctor, to a large group of mothers, and ultimately finds himself in a coffin, although he is still very much alive.

Bing Crosby, or what appears to be more than a reasonable facsimile, makes a brief appearance at the outset of the truck drivers' picnic scene. Bob Hope says a few words to him, turns away incredulously and murmurs, "No, it can't be," which will probably express the sentiments of the audience.

As is obvious, there is enough action here for several pictures, and although the plot is concerned with a phase of the international situation, it is relegated in importance to the action and comedy which dominate the film.

Paul Jones was the associate producer and Sidney Lanfield directed.

State Health Office Says: Uncle Sam Is Calling All Nurses

Uncle Sam is calling all nurses. For the proposed army of seven million men there will be a need for 42,000 nurses, or 6 to every 1000 men. This is about four times more nurses than are now in Army service.

But nursing needs during wartime are not all for military service. The technical nursing skill of the United States must be rationed as follows:

Service to armed forces

Service to civilians

Preparation of future nurses

The call for future nurses is meriting as distinct a recruiting plan as that for future pilots. The government has asked for 50,000 students to begin their education as nurses. Congress has appropriated money to train these students at good nursing schools, since the need is, of course, for competent nurses. It is expected that young women of ability will take advantage of this opportunity for service, and choose nursing as a profession.

Birth papers not needed for war job; declaration held sufficient.

Exports to Latin America to be restricted, starting August 15.

THE WAR

IN these days, of momentous action with bad news continuing from all fronts there is little to be optimistic about in our hope for an early termination of the greatest strife in the history of mankind. With the Nazis continuously advancing at the expense of Russia, with the U-Boat sinkings continuing at an alarming rate, with the repetition of the English retreats in the African zone, one would have to be most optimistic not to feel a bit depressed. The exhilaration which we experienced recently as a result of the mass bombing by England of Germany, and the brilliant sea successes in the Coral Sea and at Midway by our own indomitable forces, has given way to the emotion of distressed pessimism in many quarters.

The whole picture is dark, and we should frankly face the facts—indeed, it will be recalled that personally we have always been inclined to deal candidly in these matters rather than to extend false hopes, even though we realize that the prophets of good news to come are always more welcome than the harbingers of evil news. The people must be dealt with frankly and honestly and be given the truth if we are to survive this greatest of all conflicts. Therefore, we candidly continue to predict dark days ahead.

As bad as this picture is, we predict that it will be even darker thirty days, or possibly ninety days, from now. The chances are about even that Russia will be added to the victims of the Axis Powers within the next six months. There has been such a tremendous loss of machines of war and if manpower, much of Russia's ability to recreate additional war materials, that most honest people around Washington will agree to this statement. Moreover, one finds no encouragement that the Germans will be stopped in the words of a great American hero, "Just begun to fight." Our production has not yet reached its full stride and our armies are still in their embryonic stage. If England can hold and the sea lanes be kept open, Hitler and Hirohito are doomed.

SHIPS
As we have previously pointed out in these columns, the real bottleneck to Allied progress in the war at this time is lack of ships. However, the Maritime Commission reports that American merchant shipbuilding capacity is now ample to meet the two-year goal of 23,000, 000 tons—approximately 2,300 ships—which the President set for 1943. Our goal for 1943 is 25,000,000 tons, which can be reached if we are able to procure the necessary materials. The hitch is, and will continue to be, in the fact that the steel shortage leaves great doubt as to whether or not we can keep all of our shipyards operating at peak production levels.

The schedule for the construction of the so-called Liberty ships is 105 days, and the fact that many shipyards are setting records as low as 46 days from keel-laying to delivery has been most heartening. Records made of the voyages of some of these Liberty ships to war front ports show that the new vessels are much faster and carry approximately 2500 tons more cargo, at a lower consumption of fuel oil, than the World War I emergency cargo ships. In a concerted effort to cut down the tremendous losses which our shipping has suffered by U-boat sinkings, the Navy has been for some time conveying our ships on the eastern coast and will soon begin large scale conveying of shipping both in the Pacific and Gulf Coast areas. While many experiments have been tried to combat the submarine menace, it has just about

ORTIE THEATRE PRESENTS SUN-MON. 3 GIRLS ABOUT TOWN

Starring Joan Blondell, Binnie Barnes, Janet Blair, With Robert Benchley and John Howard

Armed with one of the wittiest scripts of the season, Columbia has produced a rollicking romantic farce, "Three Girls About Town," starring Joan Blondell, Binnie Barnes and Janet Blair, with Robert Benchley and John Howard. The comedy opens at the Ortie Theatre Sunday and Monday.

It purports to tell the answer to American wifedom's most vexing enigma; what goes on at hubby's out-of-town conventions—after the business sessions. In the process, the audience is taken behind the scenes of a strike, conference, a morticians' conclave and a "murder" investigation.

The fun begins when reporter Tommy Hopkins (John Howard), irked by Hope Tanner's (Joan Blondell) rejection of his proposal, sets out to get her fired from her job as hotel hostess, so that she'll be forced to reconsider. Hope learns of his plot and fights back, aided by her sisters Faith (Binnie Barnes) and Charity (Janet Blair). As the theater of the lovers' war spreads from room to room and floor to floor, it all mounts up to a major headache for the hotel manager, Wilburforce Puddle (Robert Benchley).

"Three Girls About Town" should be one of the significant pictures of the new season for several reasons. First, the film marks the transition of John Howard from heavy romantic lead to his first important comedy role. Second, it serves as the maiden vehicle for Janet Blair, former radio vocalist, who probably will prove to be the feminine screen find of the year. And, third, it affords three outstanding fun favorites, Joan Blondell, Binnie Barnes and Robert Benchley, the most uninhibited story of their careers.

Leigh Jason directed from an original screen play by Richard Carroll.

The Navy has also recently taken over a large number of small boats, mainly fishing vessels, to augment the east coast anti-submarine patrol. The Navy will continue to take over small fishing craft, but Secretary of the Navy Knox has given assurances that our fishing industry is considered a vital one and that sufficient vessels will be retained to insure the successful operation of that industry.

ALLOWANCES FOR SOLDIERS' FAMILIES

The machinery to handle the new servicemen's allowance act is being set up, but it will be November 1 before the first payments are made. At that time a lump sum payment covering the time from June 1 will be made. This benefit is limited to the dependents of soldiers in the lower grades; Private, Private First Class, Corporal, Technician, Fifth Class, Sergeant, and Technician Fourth Class. It applies also to similar grades in the Navy.

The official application form will be available about July 25th.

This application is filled out by the soldier through his Commanding Officer. If it is known that the soldier has failed to file an application, the dependents may apply themselves. The official form may be secured by civilians by writing to the "Commanding Officer" of the nearest Army Camp or the nearest Army Recruiting Station, or to the "Commanding General" of the Corps Area Headquarters. (In the case of Mississippi residents the headquarters is located at Atlanta, Georgia.) Dependents in Class A (a wife or a child of a soldier) do not have

War Research

In war the advantage is on the side with the best weapons. The work of scientists in America's research laboratories, developing new materials and new equipment, means a lot to our fighting men.

1. It takes years to build up and equip a large, organized, and able staff for research. Fortunately, industry did this long ago.

2. Long before Pearl Harbor, laboratories like General Electric's were serving their country—solving technical problems of war.

3. History repeats! In the last war "wireless" was developed for military needs—to become, with peace, a giant broadcasting industry.

4. So it will be this time. Research will help to win the war, and its many wartime discoveries will help to build a better future.

General Electric believes that its first duty as a good citizen is to be a good soldier.

PATRIOTIC 'HOARDING'

Of Course You CAN

Give your family "food security" next winter through "Patriotic hoarding." Fill as many of your shelves as you can with delicious fruits and vegetables, home-canned in your own kitchen.

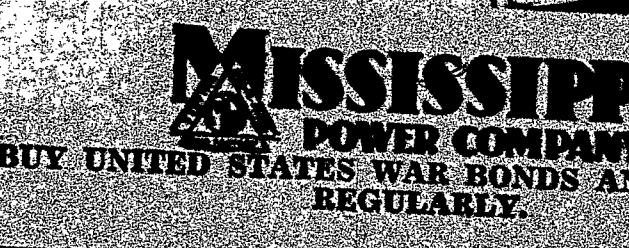

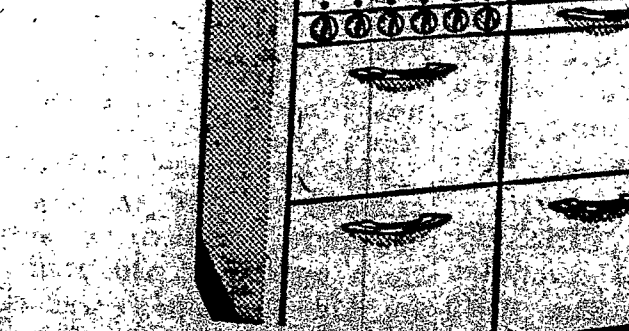

This kind of hoarding is patriotic! If you haven't fruits and vegetables in your own garden and orchard you can buy them "in season" when they are abundant.

Then can them for winter use, using those glass jars and jelly glasses you have around in the house. You'll save food and tin (a vital war metal) and thus help speed our country to victory.

Regarding sugar, remember that canned fruits call for much less sugar than do preserves. You may can fruit without sweetening and add sweetening just before serving.

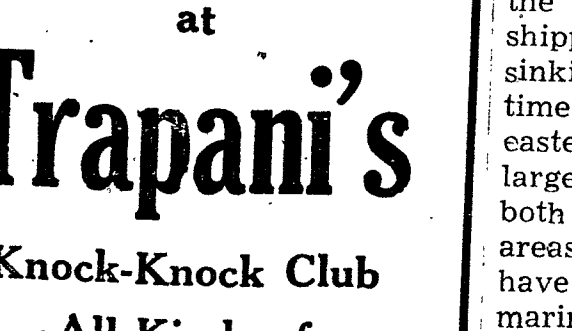

You will fully appreciate the many advantages of an automatic electric range when you can. Modern electric canning is simple, sure, easy, cool, clean, and economical. Ideal controlled heat brings a new satisfaction in cold pack oven canning, pressure cooking, and all types of preserving.

Our home economists will be glad to assist any homemaker or groups of homemakers in the important task of making food preparation contribute to victory. For canning suggestions, nutrition hints, or aid in any electric cooking problem we invite you to call and give them an opportunity to serve.

I, A. G. FAYRE, Clerk of the Chancery Court, and ex-officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in and for the County and State aforesaid, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing transcript is a true and correct copy of an order passed by the said Board of Supervisors, and entered at their July Term, 1942, on the 15th day of July, 1942, as fully and as completely as the same appears of record in my office in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.

A. G. FAYRE, Clerk.

Charter Business Off

THE charter business in Mississippi, both foreign and domestic, has been subsequently affected by the war situation. There has been a marked reduction in the number of charters filed in the office of the Secretary of State since the country was forced into the World War now raging. From January first to June 30th, 1942, all charters filed for record show an aggregate capitalization of only $37,578,592. Going back to around 1935, each six months period has shown a combined capitalization of charters totaling around $250,000,000. For the past six months the number of charters filed has averaged about 24 per month, when for several years back the average has been about 60 per month. Whether this low ebb will continue for the duration of the war is not possible to forecast at this time.

Induct 200 Young Men

The chief feature of Independence Day in Jackson was the public induction of more than 200 Mississippi volunteers for the armed forces of the United States. The induction took place on the steps of the Capitol with an interesting program of patriotic songs and speeches, following a parade from Mill Street up Capitol Street to the New Capitol via the Old Capitol.

Miss. Crop Outlook Good

The condition of the 1942 crop outlook as reported by the U. S. observer at Gulfport is good. Cotton and corn both rated well but with plenty of boll weevil. Oat crop is good with an indicated production of 11,550,000 bushels, which is about one and a half million bushels above last year. The peach crop is rated good but production more than 200,000 bushels under last year. It is estimated that the state has 5,236,000 laying hens and that in May they produced 5,417,000 dozen eggs.

Legion Holds Convention

The Mississippi Division of the American Legion held its annual meeting, Tuesday. Fred Young of Merigold was elected Commander. Vice-Commanders elected were Arthur Rush, Houston; R. R. Dismore, Jackson; and Fred C. Yates of Mt. Olive, Vicksburg was selected as the 1943 meeting place.

Revenue 48 States

The aggregate state revenue collected in the 48 states in 1915 was $455,517,000, or 4.63 per capita. In 1940, 25 years later, the total revenue collected for the 48 states was $5,060,089,000, $38.62 per capita. The bonded indebtedness of some of the states was listed as follows: Louisiana $155,202,000, $65.66 per capita; Mississippi $81,058,000, $37.10 per capita $4.48; Tennessee $95,120,000, per capita $32.62; North Carolina $150,613,000, per capita $42.17; Alabama, $68,478,000, per capita $24.17; Texas $23,282,999, per capita $3.63.

Morse Re-Appointed

Gov. Johnson has reappointed H. M. Morse to succeed himself as State Oil and Gas Supervisor. Mississippi has at Tinsley one of the major oil fields of the South, and there is much activity at present in more prospecting and drilling, hence the office of Supervisor in this connection is one of vital importance.

S P B Session

The State Pardon Board was in session several days last week, it being the regular monthly meeting. That board never gets entirely up with its work as more pardons are being asked for at every meeting and it takes a lot of time to make diligent inquiry into all applications.

Employees Of O. P. M. Cannot Take Part In Political Campaigns

Officers and employees of the Office of Price Administration are distinctly prohibited from taking part in political campaigns. This position is clearly brought out in an Administrative Order from National Headquarters of OPA just received by W. E. Holcomb, State Director for Mississippi. Particular emphasis was placed by State Director Holcomb on the following paragraphs from the order.

"Officers and employees of the Office of Price Administration are warned to avoid engaging in activities which might bring them within the prohibition of the Hatch Act. The Hatch Act makes it unlawful for persons employed in any agency of the Federal Government to use their official authority or influence in order to interfere with an election or to effect the result of an election. The prohibition applies to all persons employed by the Office of Price Administration, whether full-time or part-time. This includes speeches made in support of the work of the campaign, distribution of campaign literature, and other activities connected with the work of campaign headquarters for the election of any candidate for office.

Participation in activities prohibited by the Hatch Act will be a cause for discharge from the Office of Price Administration. The people of the country are looking to OPA for an equitable and impartial administration of the controls over prices, rationing, and rent. It is the patriotic obligation of every employee of OPA to discharge his war responsibilities as an officer or employee of OPA on a strictly non-partisan basis."

WHAT ARE WE FIGHTING FOR

The Four Freedoms

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

THE right of the human being to speak and to express himself is as undeniable as a law of nature. Without it there is no hope for happiness, no promise of progress, no unity for national strength.

Only so long as we can speak out openly and without fear, as in public meetings so typical of free America, is it possible to consider important issues or arrive at practicable conclusions affecting public interest. It's the only way a decision agreeable to the majority or a compromise satisfactory to the minority can be determined. This is American, democratic self-government.

Because of the working of this process America was prepared to make the decision suddenly forced upon us by the treachery of an enemy. Immediately the voices that had been many on both sides of the issue of war became one voice — the voice of free America, ringing out its determined answer to the challenge of the forces of destruction and oppression.

Here in America we know our course in this present world struggle and we know the principles for which we fight. This is a fountain of strength in our struggle against the dictators whose subjects know only what their masters want them to know, who think what they are told to think and who fight only because they are ordered to fight. There is a great silence; there is a world that is dead.

Without the voices of the people a land might just as well be without any sound, even the noises of nature. The sound that free speech has made in our country will echo 'round the world. The force that free speech has built will restore speech to the downtrodden nations. It must be . . . or all the people on earth will be doomed to eternal silence. America will not fail.

Concert At St. Joseph's Academy A Success

Rarely if ever before has Bay St. Louis enjoyed such musical activity as it did last Friday night, when five men from the Keesler Field Air Training Corp. shared with us their love for music and their God given talents for several hours in a public entertainment benefit for the U. S. N. C.

These men Corporals David Sackson, violinist; Harry Churchill, pianist; Del Arden, tenor; W. B. Michael, baritone and Pvt. George Todd, accompanist interpreted in a grand manner some of the most universal language of mankind in their concert. Music can rightly be called the most universal language of the world because whether interpreting the masters of ages past or present day composers they are understood by peoples the world over.

The house truly appreciated Corp. David Sackson's Naevie interpretation of Debussy's delicate tone picture, entitled "The Flaxen Haired Girl." His delicately fine phrasing and perfectly determined finish of these phrases clearly portrayed the Artist. The same may be said of Corp. Harry Churchill for his excellent interpretation of Moszkowski's Waltz in E. Arthur Olson, an English critic of note, once said, "The difference between first and second rate artist performers is their calm steadiness and minute finish of all phrasing. These characteristics were truly depicted by the afore mentioned. May it here also be mentioned that Corp. Sackson in his career has been solo violinist with Arturo Toscanini, conductor of the N. B. C. Symphony orchestra. This is indeed a distinctive note for any musician since Mr. Toscanini is regarded as the foremost Maestro of the age, and few personalities in the present day world of music stand out in such heroic relief as Arturo Toscanini.

When Corp. Churchill, with his velvety touch, yet thoroughly determined depth of tone, which only an artist's fingers can dispell from a lifeless instrument, began to interpret Moszkowski's Waltz in E, and the Ethure in C, he practically hypnotized the audience. He is truly to be hailed as Good since he worked under a handicap which never occurred to Corp. Sackson, who carried his instrument with him and it is one befitting an artist's capabilities, but this was not the case with Corp. Churchill who had to play on an instrument that has been abused for years by both untrained and unappreciative hands.

Corp. Del Arden, who has perhaps one of the finest lyrical tenor voices the Bay has ever heard, will not soon be forgotten in his beautiful rendition of Liszt's immortal "Love Dream." His melody of love songs including a taste of viennese melody from the immortal Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony," is especially adaptable to Lyrical voices of his type.

The enveloping or captivating personality of Corp. W. B. Michael and his accompanist Corp. George Todd proved him to be quite popular with the audience in general, for his lighter numbers which form a nice contrast in such a program as our city enjoyed that night.

The size of the audience showed that their efforts were appreciated and the proceeds realized from the benefit were truly gratifying indeed.

Let us gratefully remember those who made the treat possible for all of us. Miss Crawford, Miss Engman, Mrs. K. Thompson and Mrs. Pate who in her inimitable manner and charm acted as hostess and mistress of ceremonies, the sisters for their auditorium, and the men's recreational association for sponsorship.

—Mrs. Octave Fayard has as her house guest for an indefinite stay Mr. and Mrs. C. Carr of Magee, Miss. Miss Sammy Sue Ellerman, of Piquayune, Clarence Adams of Knoxville, Tenn., and Harry Weales of Chicago, Illinois.

—Mother Alice of Baton Rouge, the former Miss Velma Bigenot of Waveland, Mother Claire of New Roads, Sister Evelyn, and Sister Veronica of New Orleans were among those coming for the funeral of Miss Agnes Shannon on Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Randolph announce the marriage of their daughter, Bobbie Randolph to Harold Grayson of Savannah, Ga. Mr. Grayson is an employee of the postoffice in Savannah where they will make their home.

Canning Suggestions For Preserving Fruits Without Sugar

PEACHES, thoroughly, tree ripened, may be peeled, sliced and measured. Allow for each gallon of sliced peaches one cup boiling water in bottom of kettle to start steaming. Cover and allow to heat. Pack into clean jars and process at boiling, quarts 25 minutes and pints 15 minutes. Handle no more than a gallon in one precooking.

PEARS, ripened in a cool room or storage place may be preserved by the same method as the peaches.

FIGS, which have ripened so they almost drop from the tree should be gathered in a colander or sieve and washed up and down in a large quantity of water to remove dust. They must then drain (perhaps a second gathering may be done while the first drains.) Remove stems and crush or chop the figs to secure enough juice to start steaming.

Place in a covered kettle and stir enough to prevent scorching. When hot, pack into clean jars to within one inch of top. Seal and process at boiling, pints for 15 minutes and quarts for 20 minutes.

Figs not ripe enough to absorb the waxy covering may be hand peeled with a knife and then crushed and canned as above. They will not have developed quite as much fruit sugar as the ripe fruit.

Plums of the larger varieties may be sliced from seeds and heated with the addition of small quantity of water or in their own juice, packed into jars and processed at boiling, quarts 20 minutes, pints 15 minutes.

A Good Selection

Mrs. Joe H. Robinson has been appointed regional director for the South in the Women's Division of the War Savings Staff.
